

Event Volunteer Programme launches for 2012

Do you have an interest in volunteering at national events?
Do you want to develop skills in event management?
Do you have the drive and commitment to become part of the British Swimming Volunteer Event Management Team?

If you have answered yes to all of the above read on and apply to the 2012 intake of the Event Volunteer Programme.

The programme is aimed at developing volunteers for our volunteer Event Management Roles to ensure we have the highest quality of people delivering our increased number of events. We are looking for committed and driven individuals to take part in this 12 month programme. The selected individuals will take part in two training sessions and two event volunteer placements with a dedicated mentor throughout.

If you think you have what it takes or are interested in developing your event management skills complete the application form and return to evp@swimming.org by 13th July.

40 individuals will be selected to attend a Selection Day on the 22nd or 23rd September in Loughborough. Following this day 20 people will be invited to be part of the programme and will be required to attend an induction day on the 20th October in Loughborough.

The programme consists of the following dates and each selected individual will be required to attend all training sessions and two event placements:

Selection Day – 22nd or 23rd September

Induction Day – 20th October

1st Training Session – 19th November

1st Event Placement – one event between the 1st November and 1st May

2nd Training Session – May 2013 (Date TBC)

2nd Event Placement – one event between the 1st May and August

Graduation Event – TBC
